NOVELLO'S ORIGINAL OCTAVO EDITION.

HARVEST CANTATA

FOR CHORUS, SEMI-CHORUS AND ORGAN

WORDS SELECTED AND WRITTEN BY

JOHN FRANCIS WALLER, LL.D.

THE MUSIC COMPOSED BY

GEORGE GARRETT, M.A., MUS. D.
(OP. 20).

Ent. Sta. Hall.

Price One Shilling.

LONDON & NEW YORK
NOVELLO, EWER AND CO.

The "Recitatives," throughout, are intended to be sung in Chorus. They may however be sung as Semi-Chorus or by a single voice at the discretion of the Organist. The same remark applies to the Tenor song (page 12) and to the Trio (page 18). In any case the last Recitative ("While the earth remaineth") should be sung by all the Bass voices.

The Hymns are optional. Their introduction is suggested, but the Cantata is complete without them.

Time of performance, without Hymns, twenty minutes.

HARVEST THANKSGIVING.

RECITATIVE.

“And thou shalt observe the feast of weeks, even of the first-fruits of wheat harvest. After thou hast gathered in from thy threshing-floor, and thou shalt rejoice in thy feast.”

SEMI-CHORUS.

Come, let us keep our harvest feast
With thanksgiving of the best
As our first-fruits unto God.
That which in the field we'd sown
In the spring-time, when the sod
Our ploughs upturned, has waxed and grown,
In the sunshine and the rain,
From tender blade to ripened grain;
And we have reaped, and we have stored;
So let us give unto the Lord,
That all our labours so hath blessed,
A thankful offering of the best.

SEMI-CHORUS.

No sacrifice of blood we offer Thee,
No seethèd kid upon Thy Altar place;
But golden grain and ruddy fruit from tree,
And fragrant herbs and odorous flowers shall grace
Thy House which Christ hath sanctified,
Thy Church for which the Lamb of God hath died,
The fulness of the Earth, O Lord, is Thine:
Accept the gifts we lay upon Thy shrine.

RECITATIVE.

“Young men and maidens, old men and children, let them praise the Name of the Lord; for His Name only is excellent, and His praise above heaven and earth.”

CHANT OF YOUNG MEN.

With FAITH, O Lord, in Thee
We sowed the seeds in spring,
With HOPE, O Lord, in Thee
We watched them ripening.
In FAITH, O Lord, we reaped,
Toiling from morn till even;
And in the garners heaped
What Thy great LOVE hath given.

RECITATIVE.

“O all ye green things of the Lord, bless ye the Lord, praise Him and magnify Him for ever!

Out of the mouths of babes and sucklings
Thou hast perfected praise.”

CHANT OF MAIDENS AND CHILDREN.

The flowers that are fairest in beauty and bloom,
The flowers that are rarest in hue and perfume,
From the field and the garden we bring here to-day [to lay.
In their bloom and their beauty with praises
Lilies as pure and as white as the snow;
“Consider the lilies,” said Christ, “how they grow;
Not Solomon's self on his throne could compare,
In his glory arrayed, with those lilies so fair.”

Roses, the song-theme of poet and seer,
In their richness and brightness we offer up here,
Types of the love of the bride and bridegroom,
Whose coming the desert as roses made bloom.

Then be not o'er-careful for raiment or food,
For God shall supply what is needful and good,
Who clotheth the field with its herbage and flowers [showers.
And blesseth the earth with His sunshine and

RECITATIVE.

“While the earth remaineth, seed-time and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, and day and night shall not cease.”

CHANT OF OLD MEN.

While the earth remaineth,
So the Lord ordaineth,
Seedtime, harvest, heat and cold,
Spring, summer, winter as of old
Shall return and never cease,
And still the earth shall yield her fruits' increase.

So hath it been from time of yore,
So shall it be for evermore.
As our fathers did, we do,
So shall our children's children too,
Plough and sow, and reap secure,
And praise the Lord, whose mercy doth endure.
Hallelujah! Amen.

HYMN.—“COME, YE THANKFUL PEOPLE, COME.”

Sir G. J. ELVEY.

f COME, ye thankful people, come,
 Raise the song of harvest-home :
 All is safely gathered in,
 Ere the winter storms begin.
 God our Maker doth provide
 For our wants to be supplied,
 Come to God's own temple, come,
 Raise the song of harvest-home.

mf All the world is God's own field,
 Fruit unto His praise to yield ;
 Wheat and tares together sown,
 Unto joy or sorrow grown :
 First the blade, and then the ear,
 Then the full corn shall appear :
 Lord of harvest, grant that we Wholesome grain and pure may be.

p For the Lord our God shall come,
 And shall take His harvest home ;
 From His field shall in that day
 All offences purge away ;
 Give His angels charge at last
 In the fire the tares to cast ;
 But the fruitful ears to store
 In His garner evermore.

mf Even so, Lord, quickly come,
 To Thy final Harvest home ;
 Gather Thou Thy people in,
 Free from sorrow, free from sin,
 There for ever purified,
 In Thy presence to abide :
f Come, with all Thine angels, come ;
 Raise the glorious Harvest-home.

CHORUS.—“NO SACRIFICE OF BLOOD WE OFFER THEE.”

HYMN.—“LORD OF THE HARVEST, THEE WE HAIL.”

J. BARNBY.

f Lord of the harvest, Thee we hail ;
Thine ancient promise doth not fail ;
The varying seasons haste their round,
With goodness all our years are crowned:

ff Our thanks we pay,

This holy day ;

O let our hearts in tune be found.

mf If spring doth wake the song of mirth ;
If summer warms the fruitful earth ;
When winter sweeps the naked plain,
Or autumn yields its ripened grain,

f We still do sing

To Thee our King ;

Through all their changes Thou dost reign.

mf But chiefly when Thy liberal hand
Bestows new plenty o'er the land,
When sounds of music fill the air,
As homeward all their treasures bear ;

f We too will raise

Our hymn of praise,

For we Thy common bounties share,

mf Lord of the harvest, all is Thine :
The rains that fall, the suns that shine,
The seed once hidden in the ground,
The skill that makes our fruits abound :

f New every year

Thy gifts appear ;

New praises from our lips shall sound.

f Immortal honour, endless fame
Attend the Almighty Father's Name ;
Like honour to the Incarnate Son,
Who for lost man redemption won ;

ff And equal praise

We thankful raise

To Thee, Blest Spirit, with Them One. Amen.

HYMN.—“WE PLOUGH THE FIELDS AND SCATTER.”

German.

mf We plough the fields and scatter
 The good seed on the land,
 But it is fed and watered
 By God's Almighty Hand ;

 The warmth to swell the grain,
 The breezes, and the sunshine,

 For all His love. [Lord,

 Of all things near and far ;

 He lights the evening star ;

 He gives our daily bread.

JOSEPH BENNETT

A. C. MACKENZIE.

DAILY TELEGRAPH.

There was no mere pretence of listening ; from first to last the piece held the attention of its auditors, and compelled their hearty applause, which culminated at the close in an emphatic and apparently unanimous chorus of approval.

DAILY NEWS.

It is in his accompaniments to the dialogue that Dr. Mackenzie is at his greatest. Here all the resources of the orchestra are brought into play, and free use is made of "leading motives," including (in association with the idea of the Divine Power) an extremely happy quotation of the phrase given in the "Hallelujah Chorus" of "The Messiah," to the words "And He shall reign for ever and ever."

MORNING POST.

Few composers living could have written more beautiful music than that with which Dr. Mackenzie accompanies the spoken words. . . . The contrast to the simple gaiety of the scene in the fields is presented in the magnificent Funeral March and Chorus, which stands as the finest number in the work—deep in expression and strikingly original in treatment. . . . There can be no doubt that "The Dream of Jubal" is not only his best work, but it is also the best work of the kind produced by any modern composer.

DAILY CHRONICLE.

The choral writing is worthy of the composer who penned the magnificent series forming the "Procession of the Ark," in the "Rose of Sharon," whilst the instrumentation is throughout picturesque and vivid, as well as highly interesting to those who wish to go below the surface and critically analyse Dr. Mackenzie's method of workmanship.

THE WORLD.

The work is not only clever, but really poetical, and so far surpasses all the previous efforts of the same author with which I am acquainted. The music altogether is distinguished, musicianlike, impressive ; especially so is the first quartet with chorus, "Gloria in Excelsis," and the last, the "Invocation," with two harps.

VANITY FAIR.

For once the poet has been allowed to take his place side by side with the musician, and not, as usual, occupy a merely subordinate position. . . . Mr. Joseph Bennett has produced a work which in every way does him infinite credit—a work full of graceful imagery, tender thoughts, and poetic language. Throughout the orchestration was most charming.

SUNDAY TIMES.

All Dr. Mackenzie's strength and individuality and wealth of resource come to the surface in the three magnificent concerted pieces now alluded to. . . . they attain, indeed, to as lofty an eminence as any English composer has yet reached.

LIVERPOOL MERCURY.

From first to last there is not an episode of note unplete with interest.

LIVERPOOL DAILY POST.

It is an entirely worthy and noble conception, quite original, and of a fibre which arouses interest at the outset, and holds it enthralled until the last chord is heard.
